Cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Henderson announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Bessle, to Mr. William Henderson Rust, the ceremony to be performed on the evening of January 1st at the residence of the bride-elect's parents on East Trade Street. The wedding will be a very quiet affair, owing to illness in the family of the bride-to-be. Mr. and Mrs. Rust will be at home after January 15th in Washington, D. C. The bride-elect is a charming and popular young lady, having lived in Charlotte the greater part of her life, Mr. Rust is a young business man of Falls Church, Va. After the first of the year he will transfer his field of activity to Washington. The couple will go on an extended Northern tour immediately after the ceremony.

The reception given by Miss Julia Robertson Tuesday afternoon complimentary to her mother-in-law, Mrs. W. R. Robertson, was one of the events of the week. The beautiful halls, parlors and reception rooms wers filled with callers during the afternoon, all anxious to meet Mrs. Robertson and extend her a cordal welcome to the city. The decorations were lovely, and the refreshments in good taste. Prominent society women, a number from out of town, assisted Mrs. and Miss Robertson in receiving.

Abingdon Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ABINGDON, VA., December 21.—A Very pleasant Christmas cantata was given at Martha Washington College

Tuesday night under the direction of Miss Florence Baird. About twenty-five young ladies took part.

The most elaborate social event of the season was the annual banquet of Martha Washington College, given Thursday evening from 9 'till 12 o'clock. Covers were laid for 350. Among the guests included the trustees of Martha Washington College, the trustees of Stonewall Jackson Institute, the president of Sulins College, Dr. Martin and Mrs. Martin, and the president of Sulins College, Dr. Martin and Mrs. Martin, and the president of Sulins College, Dr. Martin and Mrs. Martin, and the president of Sulins College, Dr. Martin and Mrs. Martin, and the president of Sulins College, Dr. Martin and Mrs. Martin, and the president of Sulins College, Dr. Martin and Mrs. Martin, and the president of Emory and Henry College, Dr. Waterhouse, as well as a great many of the guests were greeted by Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Long, assisted by their faculty. The dining-room of the college was beautifully decerated in red and green, and there the ten-course banquet was served.

The place-cards were hand-painted with sprigs of holly and engraved with the names of the after-dinner speakers. Dr. J. A. Barrow, pastor of the Methodish to Lourch, made a witty and dishtroughter responded to the toast, "Martin and Abingdon". Judgo F. B. Hutton, as a trustee of Stonewall Jackson Institute, toasted "Martha and Her Sister Stonewall". "Martha and Her Sister Stonewall". "Martha and Young Womanhood," was the subject of Mr. George E. Penn, and Rev. E. P. Kahle concluded a list of clever speeches by toasting "The Greater Martha."

Mrs. W. H. Aston left Saturday for Kansay, where sile was called on account of the illness of her sister.

Miss Bessie Bell, of Thaxton, Va., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Bell. Mrs. Kate Flood left Friday to spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Ogleshy, of Lynchburg.

Mrs. W. L. Pierce, of Christiansburg paid a short visit this week to his sister, Mrs. John Scales, of Bonham, Texas, is the guest of his mother a
